Strength Takes Flight This October

This October, FAA Federal Credit Union is proud to recognize Breast Cancer Awareness Month and show our support for those whose lives have been touched by breast cancer.

Throughout the month, you'll see our staff wearing our special "Strength Takes Flight" shirts each Friday. The pink ribbon represents breast cancer awareness, while the design reflects something we see every day in our members, our employees and our communities — strength, courage and hope.

For many of us, breast cancer awareness is personal. We have family members, friends, coworkers and members who have faced a diagnosis, supported someone through treatment, celebrated survivorship or remembered someone they have lost.

By wearing pink together, we hope to do more than raise awareness. We want those facing breast cancer to know that they are seen, they are supported and they are not alone.

This October, we proudly stand together because Strength Takes Flight at FAA Federal Credit Union.

Celebrate International Credit Union Day With Us!

On Thursday, October 15, FAA Federal Credit Union will join credit unions around the world in celebrating International Credit Union Day® — a tradition that has celebrated the credit union movement on the third Thursday of October since 1948.

This year's theme, "Cooperative Finance: A Steady Signal in a Noisy World," is a fitting reminder of what makes credit unions different. In a world filled with financial noise, changing technology and countless choices, the credit union philosophy remains refreshingly simple: people helping people.

Cooperative Finance: A Steady Signal
in a Noisy World

At FAA Federal Credit Union, that means putting our members first, providing personal service and helping individuals and families make financial decisions with confidence. As a member, you're not simply a customer — you're part of the credit union.

And International Credit Union Day wouldn't be a celebration without our members! Stop by any FAA Federal Credit Union office on Thursday, October 15, and enjoy refreshments with us. It's our small way of saying thank you for choosing FAA Federal Credit Union and for being part of our credit union family. We look forward to celebrating with you!

Leaders Needed

The health of any organization is largely predicated on the quality of leadership that it possesses. FAA FCU has an opportunity for forward thinking members who would like to use their skills to volunteer in serving others via open positions on both our Supervisory Committee and our Board of Directors in 2027.

Celebrating Regina Smith: A Fond Farewell and Happy Retirement!

After many years of serving our members and being a familiar face at our Tupelo office, Regina Smith is retiring! We recently celebrated Regina at the branch and asked her to share a little about herself and what's ahead.

Regina says some of her favorite memories are centered around her family. She and her husband married young, had their children young and, as she puts it, "We just all grew up together and had the best time!" Today, her family includes her husband, daughter, six grandchildren and a first great-granddaughter expected in October—not to mention Freckles, their three-year-old Cocker Spaniel!

Retirement won't necessarily mean sleeping in. Regina says she still plans to get up at 5:15 a.m., meet the girls for coffee, then thrift, shop and sell—followed by a well-deserved nap! A huge Fleetwood Mac and Stevie Nicks fan, Regina also enjoys attending concerts and tribute shows with her friends, affectionately known as "The Twirling Queens."

As she prepares to leave FAA FCU, Regina says she has enjoyed getting to know everyone and becoming friends over the years. And why retire now? In true Regina fashion: "My husband said it's time to go—and he's always right!"

Regina, thank you for your many years of service to FAA Federal Credit Union, our Tupelo office and our members. We will miss you and wish you a retirement filled with family, friends, music, adventures—and plenty of naps! Congratulations!
